(please print or type)

NOTICE: A list of all applicants will be made public. The list will be subject to review and copying by anyone who asks for it and pays the copying fee.

Campaign Spending Commission

Campaign Spending Commissioners are appointed by the Governor from a list of panelists nominated by the Judicial Council. Commissioners may not participate in political campaigns or contribute to candidates or political committees. Commissioners are subject to the reporting and other requirements of Hawaii Revised Statutes, Chapter 84 (the State Ethics Code). Commissioners serve 4 year terms, without compensation.

The Campaign Spending Commission's primary duty is to supervise campaign contributions and expenditures.

Ethics Commission

Ethics Commissioners are appointed by the Governor from nominations submitted by the Judicial Council. Commissioners must be U.S. citizens and residents of the State of Hawaii. Commissioners may not hold any other public office. Commissioners are subject to the reporting and other requirements of Hawaii Revised Statutes Chapter 84 (the State Ethics Code). Commissioners serve 4 year terms without compensation.

Among other things, the Ethics Commission renders advisory opinions to state employees and it hears, considers, and decides the validity of charges of ethics violations by state employees. It also administers and enforces the state lobbyist law, Hawaii Revised Statutes Chapter 97.
